IGNITING CREATIVITY, COURAGE,
AND CONNECTION—ON STAGE AND BEYOND

Connie Rotella is a creative force known for her drive, heart, and impact on the performing arts. With over three decades of experience, she is a respected choreographer, director, and mentor. She works on major film and television productions, leads international collaborations, and continues to shape the next generation of performers. From high-profile sets to the theatre stage, her work leaves a lasting mark wherever she goes.

BIOGRAPHY

Connie Rotella is a Montreal-based choreographer, director, and creative mentor with over 30 years in the performing arts. As founder of Danse 1...2...3, she has helped shape the careers of dancers, actors, and singers across North America and beyond.

Her journey spans international film sets, acclaimed theatre productions, and best-selling books—including "The Force Within", which lit up Times Square. Her debut talk, The Power of Showing Up, was met with acclaim and followed by a book signing at Friedman's in the historic Artisan Hotel. Whether on stage, on screen, or behind the mic of her podcast Industry Talk, Connie shares real stories that inspire people to lead with passion and purpose. Her message is simple but powerful: show up fully, trust your voice, and let your work speak for something greater.
